

Simulation Center Lab at Vernon Place

2900 Vernon Place, Cincinnati, OH 45206

The Center for Simulation & Research has moved our training lab. It is now located at the corner of Vernon Place and East University Avenue. It is the older building which used to be the home of Employee Health Clinic and the Drug & Poison Information Center (DPIC). It sits next to the current Children's Daycare and sits across the street from the new Offices at Vernon Place.
